

DYNAMITE STRATEGIES TO SURVIVE TOUGH FINANCIAL TIMES

2010 by Renée Ellison

With 14 million families out of work, affecting 50 million people, and more layoffs coming, these are tough times in anyone's book. For believers, however, there are no dead ends. God does not abandon His people. Mom, come hear victorious, overcoming, "outside the box" strategies for surviving these times. If you are not personally in trouble, these are strategies to share and help others who ARE in trouble.

I. Managing Money

- A. You were meant to have a harvest
- B. The winning formula
- C. Earning money produces character
- D. Layer your income streams
- E. Get focused
- F. Tight course corrections and evaluations
- G. Give it everything it takes
- H. You don't have to work like this forever
- I. Do what you do best
- J. Entrepreneurialism

- K. Mobilize the entire family
- L. Mom, administrate; don't do the manual work yourself
- M. Allocating limited resources/ pay the rent first, buy food second
- N. Stay out of debt: It's a waltz with plastic
- O. Business detail savvy

II. Making Money

- A. Capturing impulse-buying money
- B. Types of jobs that flourish in difficult conditions
- C. The excellencies of pursuing manual labor
- D. Business ideas

III. Some probing final questions

For a fuller description of this topic, order Renée's booklet #109 (In Dire Straits? How to Wrench Your Family out of Financial Catastrophe). Other booklets/E-Books that could also be helpful in this regard are #5 (Money in Your Pocket), #66 (Ten Extraordinary Stories of Ordinary People Who Got Free of House Debt) and #108 (Home Staging: Putting the best face on your home).

Homeschool How-To's Cross-Over to easier ways!