Two Sides of Home School Advice

FLEXIBLE RELAXED LAID BACK

Children learn just by living and experiencing the world.
Overscheduling breeds stress.
Focus on enjoying your kids and the rest will follow.
You don't even need curriculum.
Read, play, sing, dance, grow things, write, create.
Set them free and they will fly.

DILIGENT INDUSTRIOUS CONSCIENTIOUS

The younger they are, the more they can learn.
Efficient scheduling breeds success.
Focus on productivity; they have the rest of their lives for fun.
The more curriculum, the more subjects, the better.
Read, write, memorize, practice, repeat.
The more repetition, the better.
Discipline and train them now, and when they grow older it will be like second nature.
