Promote your business at the

2018 CAPE Homeschool Convention and Curriculum Fair

On behalf of the board of directors of CAPE-NM (Christian Association of Parent Educators), and the CAPE Convention Committee, we would like to invite you to advertise in the CAPE 2018 Christian Home School Convention Program.

The program is vital to our convention attendees as it contains schedules, information on speakers, and encouraging information for home school parents. An important item in the program is a map showing the locations of area restaurants. Our convention attendees and vendors rely on various advertising for their food, lodging, supplies, etc.

You can become an important part of our overall mission – to provide the best education possible for our youth. Our attendees come to the convention from all over the state of New Mexico plus surrounding states. Your ad will be printed and distributed to over 800 convention attendees and vendors! If you would like to take advantage of this excellent opportunity to advertise your business or services to the people of New Mexico, please simply complete the attached form.

Thank you,

Advertising Committee
