Three Parenting Principles

A heart-based approach is more effective than a reward/punishment model. (1 Samuel 16:7)

Parents are the best counselors for their children if they have a good plan. (Deuteronomy 6:6-9)

Training is more effective than correction alone. (2 Timothy 3:16)

A —————→ B

Seven Key Components of an Action Plan

- Relationship (emotional connection, compassion, care)
- Firmness (structure, practice, consequences)
- Visioning (why, perspective, hope)
- Prayer (spiritual power, belief training)
- Teaching (how, practical, ownership)
- Coaching (attitude, goal-focused, accountability)
- Transferring Responsibility (for the problem and the solution, avoid the victim mentality)
