

The FINAL Fall Family Retreat Only 3 Days left for Registration

Fall is my favorite time of year. I love the fall colors, the crisp cool mornings and the flavors of fall like pumpkin scones, pumpkin butter, and yes even a little pumpkin spice latte. Most of all I love time with my family.

We spend time watching balloons, going to the pumpkin patch and our families favorite thing of all is the Fall Family Retreat. We started attending our first year of homeschooling when my oldest was just 5. I was scared that I would mess up my children with this crazy idea of homeschooling. The convention was a great time for encouragement and refreshment, and conviction that I should be homeschooling. The Fall Family Retreat was a time for fellowship with people who were truly passionate about homeschooling. It was a time where my children could meet other homeschooled kids and really get to know one another and know that they weren't the only ones doing this strange homeschooling thing. I needed both to get through this adventure. While this will be our last Fall Family Retreat, we have the memories of our favorite times together. Memories and friendships to last a lifetime. If you would like to join us for this last great event please register today. Sacramento has graciously extended phone registration until Friday October 14th. Registration is a two step process. First register with Sacramento. You can print out the registration form and call
