National Homeschool Day of Prayer

The first Friday of November each year will be declared as a National Homeschool Day of Prayer by the National Alliance of Christian Home Education Leadership. This year, that Friday is November 2. On this day, please join us and other homeschoolers around the globe to:

- Give thanks for the freedom we have to homeschool our children;
- Pray for homeschooling families in your own nation and around the globe;
- Pray for upcoming elections and the impact they may have on homeschooling;
- Pray for your elected officials to recognize that the education of children is the responsibility of the parents, not that of the nation;
- Pray for your own family-your homeschooling journey and the Lord's guidance as you take that journey, your relationships with one another, your own children and their futures, as well as seeking ways your family can minister to others;
- Rejoice in God's mercy and His faithfulness in all things.

Join us on the FB page throughout the day for prayer prompts at www.facebook.com/CAPE-NM-190913506086/. You can also join the FB page from the national organizers at www.facebook.com/events/359185331490729
