- I will commit to attending the entire convention.
- I am a servant to all. I will seek and find opportunities for service.

- I will obey the supervisors with a good attitude and cheerful countenance.
- I will be attentive to the needs of others and especially to those to whom I have been assigned.
- I will keep my assigned area clean.
- If there is a conflict situation, I will contact my supervisor.
- I will adhere to the dress code: black pants (or a modest black skirt, if ladies choose) and black shoes (no heels). Women and men can wear jeans for set up and tear down.

By signing this responsibility sheet, I am making a commitment to abide by these requirements of a runner. I understand that if I fail to abide by any of these, I will be subject to disciplinary action. Any disciplinary action will be at the discretion of the supervisors and/or board of directors and the runner will be returned to his parents' supervision for the remainder of the convention.

I have read and do agree to the requirements of a runner. If disciplinary action is needed, I shall abide by the decision of the CAPE-NM convention runner supervisor and/or board of directors. I understand that I must be present at all times during the actual convention in order for my child to be a runner. If I must leave at any time, I will leave emergency contact information with my child. Finally, if my child is selected as a runner, I will prepare them for service and ensure that they review all the Runner's Duties, Roles, and Responsibilities prior to the convention.

I, _____, do give my recommendation and consent for my child, _____, to be a runner for the 2024 CAPE-NM Home School Convention.
